

KATH

Kentucky Association of Teachers of History

Make plans to attend the 2009 KATH Conference!

Historical Thinking, Historical Literacy: Challenges and Approaches for Teaching in the 21st Century

September 12, 2009

EKU Perkins Center, Eastern Kentucky University

Keynote Address: "Uncovering the Mysteries of Historical Thinking: Using Research to Inform Classroom Practice"

Daisy Martin, Ph.D., is the Co-director of the National History Education Clearinghouse (<http://teachinghistory.org>) and the Stanford History Education Group. She co-directed <http://historicalthinkingmatters.org/>, the 2008 winner of the American Historical Association's prize for outstanding teaching aid. She formerly taught high school history and civics and currently works with pre-service history teachers. Her publications include articles in The History Teacher, Social Education, and Educational Leadership and her research and practice focuses on issues related to the teaching and learning of historical thinking.

Earn PD credit (check with local district requirements)

Register online at www.kyhistoryteachers.org by September 4, 2009.

Contact carolyn.dupont@eku.edu for more information.

Conference Schedule

- 8:00 am Registration & Breakfast
- 8:50 am Opening Remarks
- 9:00 am Keynote Address:
"Uncovering the Mysteries of Historical Thinking: Using Research to Inform Classroom Practice," Dr. Daisy Martin, Stanford History Education Group
- 10:15 am Concurrent Sessions

"Rethinking General Education: Critical Thinking vs. Coverage," Dr. Joanne Melish, UK and Kate Black, UK Archives

"Going to the Source: Teaching With Primary Sources," Kate Hesseldenz and Chad Owens, U. of L. Archives
- 11:30 am Concurrent Sessions

"Teaching the Terrifying Topic: Race, Religion, and Sexuality," Dr. Paul Jones, Transylvania University
Dr. Mark Jackson, Transylvania University

"New Pedagogy and New Media: Digital Storytelling in the History Classroom," Dr. Chad Berry, Berea College
- 12:45 pm Luncheon address

"Really Too Obvious!: Very Human Questions for Framing the Story of the Past," Dr. Thomas Owen, U. of L.
- Paper presentations
- Business Meeting

Kentucky
Humanities
Council, Inc.

