

Aingred Ghislayne (A.G.) Dunston-Coleman
859 - 622 – 1292
a.dunston@eku.edu

EDUCATION:

Ph.D. (History: August 1981) Recent American, African, African American	Duke University Durham, North Carolina
M.A.Ed. (History: December 1972) No specialization-36 hours included 6 hours Education	University of North Carolina Charlotte, North Carolina
A.B. (History: June 1965)	Livingstone College Salisbury, North Carolina

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

August 1989 - Present	Associate/Assistant Professor of American and African American History: Eastern Kentucky University: Richmond, Kentucky
To August 1989	Assistant Professor/Instructor of American and African American History at University of Kentucky, Southern Illinois University, North Carolina Central University, Barber - Scotia College, and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

PUBLICATIONS:

"African Blood Brotherhood." "On William E. Benson." "Case of Aldridge v. United States (1931)." "Case of Breedlove v. Suttle (1937)." "The Crusader." "The Greensboro (NC) Sit - Ins." "On Richard Claxton Gregory." "The National Negro Congress." "On William Johnson Trent, Jr." "The Winston - Salem (NC) Sit - Ins." in Encyclopedia of African American Civil Rights. Edited by Charles Lowery and John Marszalek. New York: Greenwood Press, 2002

Hall, Wade. Review of Passing for Black: The Life and Careers of Mae Street Kidd. Filson Club Quarterly 72 (July 1998): 330-33.

Harding. John A. Review of Fifty Years of Segregation: Black Education in Kentucky. North Carolina Historical Review 75 (July 1998): 340-41.

"Alice Allison Dunnigan" in Kentucky Women. Edited by Eugenia K. Potts. Lexington, KY: Big Tree Press, 1997.

"Post - World War II Civil Rights Movement." Proceedings of the Conference on the Development of Democracy after World War II in Germany and the U.S. Recklinghausen, Federal Republic of Germany: Bundeszentrale Fur Politische Bildung and National Council for Social Studies. 1992.

PAPERS:

"From Chalkboard to Blackboard: Teaching American History Surveys Online," "Doin' the PT3 Thang in American History Surveys," "African American Institutions in Richmond and Madison County After 1865," "Educational Mission of the Colored Women's Club Movement," "Cultural Pluralism in the United States," "Perspectives on the 1960s," "The Struggle to Extend the Right to Vote," "Black Women and the R. J. Reynolds Company in the 1940s," "Perspectives on Contemporary Democracy," Historical Assessment of the Continuity of Black Nationalism," "Demystifying the Civil Rights Movement," "Oral History and the Black Community," among others.

PRESENTATIONS:

"Leadership and Civil Rights, 1960-2000, Retrospective & Prospective Vision," "Repopulating the American History Course: Workshop on Multiculturalism for Educators," "socialism, Communism, and the Black Community," "The Black Church as an Instrument of Black Nationalism," "The Mission of the Militant Black Church," "Building Black Family Strengths for Today and Tomorrow," and various workshops on "Bigotry," on "Teaching History," and on "Writing History."

TEXTBOOK REVIEWS: Pearson Longman

African American Lives: The Struggle for Freedom, Textbook Review, 2004

American Destiny: Narrative of a Nation, Textbook Review, 2004

MANUSCRIPT REVIEWS: University of Kentucky Press

Member, Advisory Board for Kentucky African American Encyclopedia.

Lexington, KY;

Member, Oral History Commission Advisory Board. Frankfort, KY;

Member, Advisory Board, Kentucky Civil Rights Project. Frankfort, KY;

Member, Kentucky's Black Heritage Advisory Board. Frankfort, KY;

Consultant/Resource Personnel, Kentucky Center for African American Heritage (not the Muhammad Ali Center). Louisville, KY;

Chair of Membership Committee and member of the Planning Board of the Women's History Coalition, Inc.(WHC). Frankfort, KY.

Grantee: Distance learning Academy (DLA), Fall 2005, Spring 2006.

Grantee: Teaching Online-Faculty Learning Community, TLC, Spring 2004.

Grantee: Kentucky Center for Middle School Academic Achievement (New Course Proposal and Course Technological Design) from November 2002 to June 2003