

Rebecca Williams

CURRICULUM VITAE:

Education:

M.A., History, Eastern Kentucky University, 2002

B.A., History, Eastern Kentucky University, 2000

Experience:

Instructor: 2002-2009

Eastern Kentucky University

Courses taught: US History to 1877, US History 1877-Present, Introduction to World Civilizations

Graduate Assistant: 2001-2002

Eastern Kentucky University

Researcher/Writer, 2003-2004

Kentucky Historical Society Roadside Marker Program

Presentations:

“Hell’s Home Office: Hollywood and the Hays Code.” Paper presented at Ohio Valley History Conference, Western Kentucky University, Fall 2001

“Soviet Cinema and Propaganda” guest lecture

Dr. Jennifer Spock’s Modern Russia class

Eastern Kentucky University, Summer 2002

Speaking Engagements:

Dual Credit Courses: An Instructor’s Perspective – Eastern Kentucky University Dual Credit Summit, focusing on collaborating with school districts to offer college credit and high school credit simultaneously in ECU’s service region. Fall 2008

Publications:

Kentucky African American Encyclopedia: Black Life and Culture in the Commonwealth (contributor), University of Kentucky Press, to be published in 2011.

Honors and Awards:

President’s List: Fall 1997, Fall 1998, Fall 1999, Spring 2000, Fall 2000.

Dean’s Award: Fall 1998.

Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society

Phi Alpha Theta, Chapter Vice-President, 2002

Golden Key National Honor Society: 1998-2002